VOL. CXV. No. 90. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1914. PRICE, 2 CENTS

WAR CLOUD IS DISAPPEARING

Huerta Will Salute the Stars and Stripes as Apology to U. S.

TO BE RETURNED.

Administration Greatly Relieved at The Turn the Mexican Situation Has Taken.

Washington, April 16.—General Huerta has promised Charge O'Shaughnessy that he will order the federal forces at Tampico to fire a salute to the Stars and Stripes in apology for the arrest of United States bluejackets in Tampico.

But General Huerta stipulated that the American ships should fire a salute in acknowledgment. Officials close to the President said this was in accordance with the naavl practice of nations and according to precedence.

It was authoriatively stated that the only point to be determined was the number of guns, and that this would be speedily agreed upon. At the State, War and Navy Departments officials considered the crisis passed.

Mexico City, April 16, 1914.

Mexico is not engaged in controversy with anybody, still less with the great American people.

The Tampico incident is of no importance.

This is my reply to your message.

VICTORIANO HUERTA.

According to confidential dispatches which reached here today, he is "standing pat" on his declaration that Mexico "is not engaged in controversy with anybody, and that the Tampico incident is of no importance."

Confidential messages are to the effect that his advisers are divided on the question, a large percentage favoring defiance on the ground that this would force the hands of the constitutionalists and drive them to reconcile their differences and join forces against the common enemy.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee considered the Mexican situation today. Chairman Flood and Congressman Copper reported on yesterday's conference with the President. They explained that there would be no hostile move against Mexico; or any landing of bluejackets or marines at any port in that republic, unless specific authority so to do is given by Congress. There was a possibility of a slight violation of that rule, and that would be in the event of an unforeseen outrage which necessitated immediate action. Even then, Congress, the committee was told, will be told the facts.

The President conferred with Mr. Bryan and Mr. Daniels again today. They reported on conditions revealed by the over-night dispatches from Mexico City in the fleet. Mr. Daniels told the President that Rear Admiral Badger would be "on the job" next Wednesday instead of Tuesday and that there would be no delay in carrying out orders on either the east or the west coast.

Secretary of War Garrison has already assured the President that the army is ready. Officers have been recalled from furloughs, and the Mexican expeditionary army—so-called—at Texas City, can entrain for Galveston, where the transports are waiting, on less than an hour's notice. But so far there has been no indication that the army is to be utilized or will have any immediate part in events.

The tension in Mexico is increasing, and already there have been anti-American demonstrations at a number of points. The chief of these was said to be at Vera Cruz, where crowds gathered near the American consulate, and hissed the consul and his assistants. The police are reported to have dispersed the crowd, but whether an opology was forthcoming from the local authorities is unknown.

What effect the blockade will have on the sentiment of Carranza and his advisors is a question much disputed here. The general opinion is that if Tampico is taken by the United States, Carranza will be forced to assume a position of open hostility. Any other attitude officials here say, would lose him sympathy with the great mass of his followers, who have suspected that he was inclined unduly to favor the United States.

There was a growing belief among naval officers today that when Badger reaches Tampico he will find that the Mexican federals have evacuated that city. If so, it is likely that the fleet will continue to Vera Cruz, and that the scene of the enforced salute will be that port.

JUMPS IN FRONT OF TRAIN.

Dramatic Suicide From Crowded New York Subway Platform.

New York, April 16.—Several hundred persons, many of them women, who crowded both the north and south bound platforms of the subway at Fourteenth street yesterday morning, were thrown into a panic when a well-dressed man, about 28 years old, uttered a cry and dived headlong from the platform in front of an express train, and was killed. Men and women rushed for the stairways to get away from the sight, and women fainted and fell to the platforms. The police believe the suicde was Zoltan Oestreicher. Deposits of $124 were made out in this name, and a laundry slip bore the same name and the address.

Washington, April 16.—Colonel John S. Mosby, left Washington yesterday for Toronto, Canada, where he was invited by the Canadian War College to deliver an address on the movements of Stuart's Cavalry in the Gettysburg campaign. Colonel Mosby recently passed his eighteith birthday, but is well and preserved in mind and body.

Nine-Days' Battle.

A nine days' battle, possibly more desperate than that at Gomez Palacio and Terreon, has resulted in a victory to the Mexican rebels under General Francisco Villa. The combined rebel force came upon reunited Federals, said in the last days of the battle to have numbered 15,000 at San Pedro de Las Colonias, State of Coahuila, 40 miles east of Torreon. Killed and wounded on both sides, it is said, will number in the neighborhood of 3,000. The rebels claimed to have taken 700 prisoners.

The theft of a famous statue of St. Peter from the Basilicia of St. Clemens in Rome, is reported. No trace was found of the robbers who had evidently carried away the sacred relic during the night.

FIERCE BATTLE IN PROGRESS

Villa at Head of Troops in Attack Upon Federal Forces.

AMERICANS TAKEN.

Troops of Huerta, Although Faint and Weary, Make Determined Resistance to Constitutionalists.

San Pedro De La Colonias, Coahuila, Mexico, April 16.—With Gen. Grancisco Villa in personal command, a fierce battle between constitutionalists and the remnants of the combined federal columns of Gens. Velasco, De Moure and Maas is in progress at Benavides. Villa has sent into the struggle all available rebel troops here, and has ordered 3,000 fresh soldiers up from Torreon.

It is reported that the battle-torn federal army reduced from 12,000 to 6,800 as the result of the savage fight Monday night with a rebel victory, is completely surrounded. Dispatches are being brought here by runners. These show that a most desperate engagement is being fought, with the federals offering an astonishing resistance.

Gen. Torribion Ortega, one of Villa's chief lieutenants, reported today that, among the prisoners taken by his division at San Pedro, were five American newspaper correspondents and magazine writers who had been traveling with the federals, Villa has given instructions to his officers to give them every consideration.

Washington, April 16.—Steaming southward into clearing skies the four dreadnaughts of the Atlantic fleet, dispatched to Mexico by President Wilson, were well on their way to Tampico today.

Officers of the vessels do not think it possible for the vessels to reach Tampico at noon Wednesday. It will require a continuous 12-knot rate to land them in Mexico waters by that time.

WANTS PROHIBITION.

Advocates of Cause Appear Before House Judiciary Committee.

Washington, April 16.—Prohibition advocates yesterday presented to the House Judiciary Committee arguments in support of a constitutional amendment to enforce prohibition throughout the United States. They urged the committee to report to the house the resolution of representative Hobson, of Alabama, providing for the submission to the States for ratification of a constitutional amendment directed against the sale or manufacture for sale of all alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.

For three hours, men and women representing States all over the east presented their arguments and told of the progress of the prohibition fight. Today they will appear before the subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, in charge of the prohibition resolutions.

Led by Representative Hobson, the prohibitionists argued that they simply were appealing for an opportunity to present to the people of the country, through the State Legislature, a definie referendum on the liquor question.

Representative Hobson said about 55 per cent of the people of the United States now are living in the prohibition territory.

Among women who apeared for the W. C. T. U. were Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, of Virginia, assistant recording secretary.

Rev. James Cannon, D. D., of Virginia, representing the M. E. Church South, was among the speakers.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL FUND.

Campaign For New Building Inaugurated Last Night.

The crying need for a new and up-to-date hospital for Alexandria is something that should appeal to every citizen of Alexandria and the adjoining counties, and the campaign to raise $50,000 to build this much needed institution was actively inaugurated last night when the executive committee of business men to raise the needed money met in the Chamber of Commerce with A. D. Brockett in the chair and J. T. Preston acting as secretary in the absence of Mr. J. Y. Williams.

Among those present were W. A. Smoot, Jr., Worth Hulfish, Carroll Pierce, R. S. Jones, John H. Trimyer, J. S. Taylor Burke, Harry Hammond, W. A. Moore, Jr., R. L. Payne, Jas. W. Roberts, James Bayne, B. Wiel, and Gardner L. Boothe.

Mr. Brockett called Mr. Hulfish to the chair and presented the following list of committees:

To Organize Boosters' Club—Carroll Pierce, William Campbell, Jas. M. Duncan, John H. Trimyer, C. S. T. Burke, Henry K. Field, Harry Hammond, E. S. Leadbeater, W. A. Moore, Jr., W. A. Smoot, Jr., R. L. Payne, J. T. Preston, Robert E. Knight, James W. Roberts, James Bayne, B. Weil, G. L. Boothe.

Advisory—Worth Hulfish, W. B. Smoot, J. M. Hill, F. F. Marbury, G. L. Boothe, Isaac Eichberg, T. J. Fannon, Thos. A. Fisher, W. A. Smoot, Jr., Carroll Pierce, James W. Roberts, Henry K. Field, Robert S. Jones.

Committee on Publicity—W. A. Smoot, Jr., J. T. Preston, Arthur Herbert, W. W. Ballenger, Geo. D. Hopkins, B. Weil, E. S. Leadbeater, R. D. Brumback.

Committee on Printing—J. Y. Williams, W. A. Smoot, Jr., R. L. Payne.

Moving Picture Advertising—W. W. Ballenger, James Bayne, Harry Hammond.

To Purchase Booster Buttons—J. T. Preston, J. Y. Williams, Robert S. Jones.

Mr. Brockett also outlined an active campaign, including the request for the churches and schools of the city and counties to assist in the work beginning next Sunday.

The press of Alexandria, Washington and the counties were asked to cooperate. The publicity committee was directed to use every effort possible to give the people a full knowledge of the necessity for the hospital.

Mr. Brockett stated that five thousand buttons would be available for distribution among the schools and churches—that subscription blanks had been prepared and that it was hoped every minister in the churches would on next Sunday say something in regard to the needs of the hospital. He also stated that R. S Barrett, of the Alexandria Gazette had promised his best efforts and use of the space needed in the Gazette.

It was decided to hold meetings each night at the Chamber of Commerce until the close of the campaign—and that the soliciting committee should begin active work on Monday next. This committee should receive the "glad hand" from every one, as none of us know how soon we may need an up-to-date hospital.

INTERSTATE FARES.

Applies Long and Short Haul Principle to Railroad Passenger Traffic.

Washington, April 16.—Sweeping reductions in passenger fares on the interstate railroads will go into effect May 1, on which date the roads will apply the new tariffs extended the long and short haul principle to passenger rates.

An analysis of the tariffs on file with the Interstate Commerce Commission shows that 95 per cent of the new rates will be reductions and only 5 per cent increases. The effective date of the long and short haul provision was postponed until cases brought in the Supreme Court, involving the right of States to fix rates, were decided affirmatively. Notice then was sent to the carriers that after May 1 they would be permitted to charge a higher rate for the shorter than for the longer haul without specific permission from the commission.

The most material reductions in fares under the new tariffs are from important terminal and rate basing cities to intermediate points.

TO FILE MOTION IN FRANK CASE

Attorneys Endeavoring to Secure New Trial For Condemned Man.

TO HANG FRIDAY.

Action Will Stay Execution—Results of Investigations by Burns Not Included in Motion.

Atlanta, Ga., April 16.—Counsel for Leo M. Frank, the young factory superintendent under sentence of death for the murder here of his employe, Mary Phagan, fourteen years old, last night completed plans for the filing of an extraordinary motion for a new trial for Frank today.

Filing of the motion will automatically stay the execution of Frank until Judge Hill, of the Superior Court, makes a decision on the new trial application. The convicted man is now sentenced to hang on Friday.

The motion for a new trial will be based on the claim of newly-discovered evidence and the repudiation of testimony gven by witnesses at the previous trial of Frank. Methods used by the prosecution in preparing the case against Frank also are attacked in the application.

Affidavits attacking the testimony given against the character of Frank and contradicting statements made by James Conley, the negro factory sweeper, are included in the new trial motion, a copy of which was made public recently. Conley was the chief witness against Frank. He was convicted as an accessory after the murder, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

No results of the investigation of the case being made by William J. Burns, the detective, are included in the new trial motion, according to the convicted man's counsel last night. It is understood that the outcome of Burns' investigations may be made amendments to the motion later. The detective has not announced the nature of his inquiry, other than to say he believed Frank should have a new trial.

H. M. Dorsey, the solicitor general, has made no statement regarding the course the state would follow in the new trial efforts, but it was understood that strong opposition would be wagen to prevent a new trial, the State holding it had established its case against the defendant.

The body of the girl employe was found in the basement of the National Pencil Company's plant on the morning of April 27, 1913. Conley, the negro factory sweeper, testified that Frank killed the girl in the factory, and that he aided in the disposal of the body.

Frank was convicted on the first ballot of the jury. Efforts to obtain a new trial heretofore have failed in both the Superior Court and the State Supreme Court.

THE VICE QUESTION.

Mayor Ainslie Says it Cannot be Settled by Scratch of a Pen.

Richmond, Va., April 16.— "There are people in this town who would undertake by the scratch of a line or the waving of a policeman's club to settle a problem which has taxed for its solution the ablest minds in the country," said Mayor Ainslie last night, addressing the Italian-American Political Club, "but I am not one of them. I am unwilling to take an important step in any matter of great moment without first investigating it."

The Mayor thus justified the position he has taken in dealing with the problem of commercialized vice. He cited his appointment of a commission of fifteen to aid him in finding a solution of the problem as a practical demonstration of his attitude towards all public questions of importance. He did not believe for a moment that he carried all of the city's brains under his hat, and wanted to make use of all the advice he could borrow.

"Some profess to know all about the vice problem, without investigating it," said the mayor, "and have a ready-made cure which they would apply. I am not a believer in the segregated district as the final answer, but I am unwilling to take drastic steps one way or another without getting the facts. I am not responsible to myself alone.

"I am dealing with your property and your business and your welfare, and I intend to avail myself of all information I can secure before taking a step which will affect any of them."

WHY RICHMOND WON THE BANK

Convincing Claims Has Proved Selection Was Proper and Wise.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

Widely Known Statisticians Say Virginia's Capital City is Logical Point For District.

Richmond, April 16.—The designation of Richmond as the location for a Federal reserve bank was approved yesterday by two of the most widely known banking experts in this country—Charles A. Conant, of New York, and O. P. Austin, former chief of the United States Bureau of Statistics, and now a private consulting statistician of Washington. Each man has made a careful analysis of the figures compiled for the use of the organization committee in Washington. Mr. Austin reports as his conclusions:

"When compared with the facilities which any other city of the area could offer, I consider the final determination of the area and the selection of Richmond for the reserve bank as a logical and wise conclusion, and believe it will be so recognized when subjected to the test of business operations under the new law."

Mr. Conant reported: "Richmond has convincing claims under any reasonable apportionments as one of the reserve banks of the South."

Mr. Conant is the author of a number of books on banking, which are the recognized authorities. He has been called into consultation by several countries in connection with currency legislation, and has devised and installed new financial systems for several of the South American republics. As a consulting expert on banking he stands at the very top of the profession.

In the beginning of the fight for a reserve bank for Richmond the executive committee headed by Oliver J. Sands, retained Mr. Conant, regarded by the committee as one of the leading experts in banking and currency matters in the world, to come here and advise the committee as to whether he thought Richmond was properly located and whether the committee was justified in making an effort to secure one of the banks.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Thief Secures Between $15,000 and $20,000 Worth of Jewels.

New York, April 16.—Six customers were looking over jewelry in Rosenthal's curiosity shop, 1366 Broadway, three doors below Thirty-seventh street New York, at 2 o'clock yesterday evening, when a young man, wearing a raincoat and soft hat, apeared outside the show window.

In the shop, besides the customers, were four clerks and a girl cashier. The man quietly entered the vestibule, drew a long chain and padlock from his pocket, made a loop in the chain and, playing it around the door knob, drew it taut to an iron bar, fastening the door so it could not be opened from the inside. To make sure the chain would not slip, he put a padlock on it.

Because of the storm not many persons were on Broadway at the time. After chaining the door the man quietly stepped outside the vestibule and looked into the window, where were many trays of jewelry. The man then threw a brick through the show window and calmly helped himself to the most valuable jewelry in the window. He secured between $15,000 and $20,000 worth of jewelry.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

The most important event in Alexandria's social circles during Easter week took place last night when Miss Anna Elizabeth Barley, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Louis C. Barley, was married to Mr. William Frazier Baldwin, formerly of Chicago, and now of Alexandria. The ceremony took place at Christ Episcopal Church, which was filled with friends of the young couple. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. William J. Morton, rector of the church.

The church was decorated with palms and Easter lilies, while the pews reserved for the family and relatives were marked with Easter lilies tied with white ribbon.

Accompanied to the chancel by her father, by whom she was given in marriage, the bride entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Charles G. Lennon, of Washington, D. C., organist of the church.

The bride wore an exquisite creation of white satin with princess lace and pearl trimmings and orange blossoms. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. Her flowers consisted of a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Bride roses.

The bride's only ornament was a crescent of diamonds and emeralds which was worn by her mother when a bride.

The maid of honor was Miss Christina Furnival, of Rapidan, Va., while the bridegroom had for his best man, Mr. Louis C. Barley, Jr., brother of the bride.

The maid of honor wore a becoming gown of white taffeta and lavender French tulle, and carried a basket of pink sweet peas.

The following were the bridesmaids: Misses Nellie and Mary Robertson, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Jean Campbell, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Lillian Craig, Deerfield, Va.; Miss Annie Macon Potts, of Ashland, Va.; Miss Lucy Uhler, Miss Delia Phillips, and Miss Judith Boswell, of Alexandria.

The bridesmaids wore pretty dresses of pink taffeta with French pink tulle, and carried baskets of lavender sweet peas.

Little Miss Katherine Baldwin, sister of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She was becomingly attired in accordion pleated pink crepe le chine trimmed with cream lace, and carried a basket of pink sweet peas.

Mrs. Barley wore a handsome gown of lavender satin and tulle with trimmings of lace.

Mrs. Archibald Baldwin wore lavender satin with bodice of lace.

The ushers were Messrs. Keith Carlin, George Anderton, Walter C. Foster, and George Bryan Pitts, of Alexandria, Mr. Bassett Blackley, of Washington, Mr. Barton Myers, of Norfolk, Mr. Harry Ashdown, of Winnipeg, Canada, and Mr. Stuart Taylor, of Baltimore.

Immediately following the wedding a beautiful reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 211 north Washington street. The drawing rooms were decorated with white and pink roses, palms and ferns.

Receiving with the bride and groom were Judge and Mrs. Barley and Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Stuart Baldwin, parents of the bridegroom, of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Creighton Carlin presided at the punch bowl.

At a late hour Mr and Mrs. Baldwin left for a bridal trip to Cuba. On their return they will reside in this city.

Waters, of Washington, and Mr. Leo Thomas Downey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Downey, of this city. The altars beautifully adorned with Easter lilies and ablaze with lights, lent an added glory to the scene as the solemn ceremonial of the Catholic Church was carried out in all its details. In the sanctuary besides the officiating clergymen, were the Reverend Fathers Cutler, of this city, O'Hara, of Cumberland Md., and Conley, of Baltimore, Md. Promptly at seven to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal march played by an orchestra, the bride entered the church with her father who gave her away in marriage. She was gowned in an exquisite costume of bridal satin, trimmed with lace and chiffon and embroidered with pearls. Her girdle was of pan velvet, and the lace at her throat was fastened with a cres-

PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN

After Signatures to Petition to Governor to Call Special Election Throughout State

A week's campaign to secure signatures to the petition to the governor of Virginia asking him to call a special election to be held throughout the State on Tuesday, September 22nd 1914, for the purpose of voting on the question of State-wide prohibition, will be commenced on Monday, June 22nd, and end Saturday, June 27th. The enabling act, which was passed by the last legislature, will not go into effect until ninety days after the close of the legislature session, which will fall on June 20th and the campaign for the signatures will commence on the following Monday. The requirements of the act is that one-fourth of the qualified voters in the last November election sign the petition. As there was no opposition to the Democratic voters in the last election, the vote cast was very small and only 18,000 signatures will be required to the petition. It is thought that the prohibitionists will secure more than double the number required.

Local committees will be named in every city and county in the state to secure signatures and during the week meetings will be held every day in churches and school houses.

The opponents to the state wide measure are not making their plans public, but it is stated that an elaborate campaign has been mapped out to prevent the passage of the act. It is probable that before the governor calls the election, legal action will be taken to have the constitutionality of the enabling act passed upon by the courts. This will mean a long and tedious fight through the courts. In case the people of the state vote dry the new law will go into effect November, 1st, 1916.

MAY MODIFY THE RULES

Chief of Engineers U. S. Army Will Hear Suggestions Concerning Operations of Draws

Ever since trains have been running over bridges which span the river between Virginia and Washington, inconvenience has been experienced by passengers on trains by the time lost waiting for boats to pass through the draws. This has been especially vexatious during the early morning rush hours when so many Alexandrians as well as numbers who reside in Alexandria and Fairfax counties who are employed in the capital city are anxious to reach places where they are supposed to report at certain hours. After the work of the day is over and tired Virginians are anxious to reach their homes they are often compelled to lose fifteen or twenty minutes waiting for the draws to open and close when wheezing tugboats creeping along with sand scows and other tows appear in sight.

It was supposed some time ago that such steam craft would be equipped with smokestacks on hinges, as is the custom in London and other places in Europe, and that this chronic cause of delay in the passage of steam and electric trains would be minimized at least. The same conditions, however, exist as in the days of old Long Bridge which vanished with the construction of the present modern railway and highway bridges.

The chief of engineers will on Monday, May 1st, hear suggestions concerning the operation of the draws, and rules may be adopted for the closing of the bridges to such craft as make it necessary to open the draws between the hours of 7 and 9 a. m., and 4 to 6 p. m.

Should such a rule be adopted great relief will be experienced especially by the many who travel daily between Virginia and Washington.

A total of 109 prisoners was taken in custody since his last report, according to the monthly report of Chief of Police Goods. Of this number 47 were for drunken and disorderly conduct, while sixteen were disorderly and fighting.

Upon the application of the Old Dominion Glass Company Andrew Zell was elected a special policeman for duty at the company's plant.

The company will handle the well-known Marion car and will have a renting department for both pleasure cars and hauling. The incorporators are well known business men of Alexandria whose connection with the enterprise ensures it a success.

Several Bodies Found at Norfolk During Past Few Days.

Norfolk, Va. April 16.—John A. Smith, 46 years old, were drowned Tuesday afternoon, Smith in a branch of Mahone's lake alongside of Etherridge's lumber yard in Brambleton, and Shellato in the Elizabeth river off Sandy Point. With his head in the mud and his feet in the air, Smith was found in the branch of Mahone's Canal by his father with whom he had been walking. Smith was dead when brought to the bank of the canal.

James Shellato was drowned in the Elizabeth river off Sandy Point Tuesday afternoon, when a rowboat in which he and Henry Garrison, 16 years old, had been rowing, capsized. Garrison caught the overturned boat and held on until assistance arrived in answer to his cries for help.

The body of Thomas Roberts, a boilermaker, was found floating in the Elizabeth river Tuesday morning, near Campbell's wharf, by members of the crew of one of the warship cutters. The body was brought to the edge of Campbell's wharf, and it was reported to the police that the body of John T. Tully, or W. J. Canavan, who were drowned late last Thursday night when an automobile in which they and five others were coming from Portsmouth to Norfolk ran off the ferry boat Rockaway while the vessel was entering the slip at Norfolk, had been found.

REJECTED SUITOR KILLS SELF.

Man Commits Suicide Shortly After Leaving Girl.

Richmond, Va., April 16.—Despondent because Miss Louisa Sutton refused to accept his proposals of marriage, J. Garrett Kennedy, 23 years old, of Rio Vista, Va., shot and killed himself early yesterday morning. He fired one bullet from a 32-calibre revolver into his breast, but missed the heart. Then he placed the weapon in his mouth and the bullet penetrated downward, severing the spinal cord.

Kennedy had frequently threatened suicide, according to Miss Sutton, and she was not alarmed when she heard shots shortly after Kennedy had left her. JACKSON DAY.

May 1st Anniversary of Death of Great Commander.

Richmond, Va., April 16.—May 1st will be the fifty-first anniversary of the death of "Stonewall" Jackson, and the day is to be formally observed in this State. Governor Stuart has issued a proclamation fixing the day for observance and for the laudable undertaking of raising funds for a monument to the great soldier. The proclamation issued last evening is as follows:

To Virginians at Home and Abroad:

On the field of Chancellorsville fifty-one years ago General Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson gave his life in defense of the State that gave him birth. A lover of peace he went into the field at the call of Virginia, and there,in campaigns that have made his military campaign world-wide, he led her youth to victory and to honor.

It is now proposed to discharge an obligation long delayed in the erection of a monument in Richmond to the memory of General Jackson. It is fiitting that he be laid in the city that he gave his life to defend.

Therefore, I do hereby declare that I have designated Friday, May 1, 1914, to be recognized and observed throughout the Commonwealth as Stonewall Jackson Monument Day, when under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and other faithful women of Virginia, contributions will be made to the monument fund. A general and cordial response by all Virginians will bring immediate success.

Done at Richmond under my hand and the lesser seal of the Commonwealth, this the 14th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1914, and of the Commonwealth the 138th.

SHOT DOWN AT HIS DOOR.

Young Merchant of Green Spring, Va., Killed by Bandit.

Richmond, Va., April 16.—Victor J. Hall, a young merchant at Green Spring, Louisa county, was called to the door of his home between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning and shot down by an unknown party. The bullet entered his head and lodged underneath the skin of the forehead. He died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning without regaining consciousness. Hall's young wife heard the shot and hastened to the door and fell over the prostrate body of her husband.

The shooting occurred shortly after Hall's return from assisting in fighting a fire, which destroyed the general merchandise store of W. R. Duncan, just across the railroad track from Hall's place of business. Duncan's store had been robbed and then set on fire and it is presumed that the party who fired Duncan's store was the murderer of Hall.

Late yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriff R. E. Trice arrested a negro suspected of the crime, but the black denies his guilt. He says he comes from Culpeper county, but the officers suspect he escaped from a chain gang.

No motive is known for the murder of Hall. He was prosperous in business and is not known to have had any enemies.

The county and State authorities will offer rewards for the arrest of the guilty person.

THE "CHURCH SENTENCE."

Mayor of Bristol, Thinking of Applying it to Drunkards.

Bristol, Va., April 16.—Mayor John H. Faucette, of Bristol, Tenn., is thinking seriously of applying the "church sentence" to drunkards, who are brought into police court. He has been in communication with Mayor A. M. Brand, of Lithonia, Ga., concerning the efficiency of the plan The Georgia executive has assured him that it works well. Of ten men who were given the church sentence, the Georgia mayor writes, eight reformed, and three of the number are now officers in the church. The Georgia executive concluded his communication: "I do not think that it helps a drunkard to fine him, or to put him on the streets but to send him to church, he gets to associate with the very best people of the town, and if there is any manhood in him at all, it will awaken immediately."

Four men were killed and two were injured seriously when a Houston and Texas Central passenger train crashed into an automobile near Georgetown, Texas, yesterday. The chauffeur tried to cross the tracks in front of the train. All of the victims were from Florence, Texas.

VIRGINIA DEBT CASE.

Attorney-General Pollard Goes to Washington to Attend Final Hearing.

Richmond, Va., April 16.—Attorney-General John Garland Pollard left Richmond yesterday for Washington, where he will represent Virginia in the Virginia-West Virginia debt case. The case had been set for final hearing last Monday, when Attorney-General Pollard visited the National Capital to conduct Virginia's argument.

Upon reaching the Supreme Court of Appeals the Virginia attorney learned that consideration was being given several cases which had lapped over and that a hearing in the state debt case had been set for this morning. This will be the tenth and final hearing.

It appears that West Virginia is seeking to reopen the case and establish an offset of $5,000,000 against the $7,200,000 principal which the court decided the State of Virginia owed to West Virginia.

West Virginia claims that Virginia has not as yet accounted for the stocks and bonds which she had bought before the war between the States with the proceeds of the sale of state bonds. Virginia, on the other hand, claims that the question of principal has been finally disposed of by the court and that a question of interest only is now open to discussion. The amount of interest involved is many times the amount of the principal, aggregating from $15,000,000 to $30,000,000, dependent upon the method of calculation and the rate which the court may fix as reasonable.

ANXIOUS FOR ACCEPTANCE.

Ask Rev. Thomas Semmes to Become Meade Memorial Rector Tonight.

Richmond, April 16.—Rev. Thomas Semmes, of Covington, is being urged to become rector of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church. Mr. Semmes will first conduct a special service for the congregation. A call has been extended him, but he has not yet acted upon it. The members are very anxious to have him accept, as the church has been without a rector, since the resignation of Rev. F. Ernest Warren six months ago.

It is desired to carry out as soon as possible the plans made by Mr. Warren for a new church, but the work cannot be satisfactorily done without a rector. Strenuous efforts are accordingly being made to secure a preacher and start the building. An excellent site has been purchased.

TAX RATE UNCHANGED.

The remarks of Alderman Henry K. Field, chairman of the finance committee of the City Council, published in yesterday's Gazette, were read with interest by all tax-payers. The fact that the rate of $1.80 on one hundred dollars with the usual discounts for prompt payment is to be continued during the coming fiscal year was especially encouraging, notwithstanding the many public improvements which have been made as well as those contemplated. Mr. Field, while the tone of his observations suggested caution, placed himself on record as favoring the plans for a new high school building, modern truck house and extensive improvements to the armory of the Alexandria Light Infantry.

Mr. Field in his remarks made interesting and apt references to conservative movements in other cities where too much had been expected from the limited resources of communities, and while not urging the application of a check wheel in Alexandria, he made it plain to all who have an ear to hear not to indulge dreams which might be difficult to fulfill or the cause of overburdening the municipality with obligations.

The work of public improvements in Alexandria has been progressing slowly during the past twenty years. Sewers now radiate over a large area, while the most modern thoroughfares have taken the places of primitive cobblestones. In the meantime a new building has been constructed for the girls of the public school.

Alexandria is playing her part in the progress of the twentieth century, but it cannot be expected that our city will compare with Paris or Berlin. Many of our streets, however, are as fine as any in the world, and should we forge ahead during the next two decades as we have in the past there will be much here in the way of public improvements to bring conscious pride to all.

TAXES THAT DISCOURAGE PRODUCTION.

A most remarkable letter is on page 5511 of the Congressional Record. It is from a constituent of Congressman Johnson, who built a home, cultivated a farm, planted an orchard and is being driven out by taxes.

He begs Mr. Johnson (who says he has 100 similar letters) to help him to sell his farm for enough to take his family to Western Canada, where men are not taxed on their homes, barns, orchards and stock.

In every State we follow this foolish policy of punishing industry, and rewarding monopoly by our tax laws. After preventing production by the tremendous power of taxation we fuss about the high cost of living. How can eggs be cheap when we, through tax laws, make it a greater crime to build a chicken house than to rob one? How can beef and pork, mutton and wool come down in price while we fine the farmer every year if he plants an orchard or builds a barn?

How childish futile to talk of minimum wage and eight-hour laws to remedy unemployment while we reward the man who keeps idle men from idle acres and punish the man who builds or plants in city or country.

Every idle lot, every idle acre, means enforced recruits for slums, brothels nad penitentiaries. Till we so change our tax laws that they will encourage industry instead of punishing it; that they will prevent monopoly instead of rewarding it, our efforts to improve conditions are as idle as the far-famed Mrs. Partington's endeavor to sweep back the tide with a broom.

cent of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She wore a tulle veil, caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Gertrude Spetzler, of Baltimore, Md., was maid of honor; she was charming in a gown of pale pink satin trimmed with crystal and wore a tango hat of silver lace. The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Downey, of this city, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Marguerite Waters of Denver, Col., cousin of the bride, Miss Helen Springman, of Washington, Miss Mary Kavanaugh, of Staunton, Va., and the Misses Josephine and Margaret Daly, of Washington, the last three of whom were school mates with Miss Waters at St. Mary's in this city. The six attendants were becomingly attired in gowns of blue crepe de chine with shadow lace trimming and girdles of pink velvet, and they wore tango hats of gold lace, and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas.

The best man was Mr. Julian Downey, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were John E. Waters, brother of the bride, Judge Michael Doyle of the Municipal Court, Washington, Richard A. Wahl, of Philadelphia, Edmund Dwyer, of this city, Julius Treget, of Baltimore, and Edward Callaghan, of Palton, Pa.

Following the bridal ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, 744 Rock Creek Church Road, which was attended by many Alexandrians.

One of the most elaborately appointed juvenile affairs of the season was the Easter party given yesterday afternoon from three to five by Master Robert Cochran and little Miss Courtenay Cochran, when they entertained their playmates at their home in St. Asaph street. The dainty invitations sent out a week ago gave promise of just such a party and the highest anticipations of the children were more than realized.

Upon arriving each little guest was presented with an Easter basket with gaily painted eggs within. Many attractive souvenirs the young host and hostess gave during the afternoon's games—bunnies of every size, bedecked in becoming fashion, and chicks galore. After an hour's frolic, the little ones were ushered into the dining room where they beheld a picture they will long remember and cherish.

The table bore in its center a crisp crepe basket from which ran streamers of every hue and when drawn by the eager tots was found to have at the other end a chicken that must have truly been hatched from the Easter bunny's eggs for such bright pinks, blues, scarlets, purples, greens, could never have been arranged otherwise. Grouped around the large basket were miniature crepe baskets heaped with tiny chicks and eggs. At either end of the table was a wide-awake bunny suspending a basket by a pink carrot placed in her mouth. The place cards were bunnies which winked and peeped from under a fetching Easter bonnet. After the happy group of youngsters had been plied with as much ice cream and cake, cooky rabbits and chickens, as was deemed wise, games were renewed and "chick-a-ma-cranee-crow" was played until each little man and little lady bid adieu to the small host and hostess, truly exclaiming: "I had such a good time at your party."

Those present were the little Misses Greene, Jeanette Cochran, Josephine Gregg, Mary Cary Dawson, Ruth Bryant, Catharine Leadbeater, Courtenay Page Waller, Margaret Eggborn, Viola Barrett, Caroline Morton, Nellie Sommers, Susan Thompson, Polly Maigne, Catherine Selby, Francis Marshall, Grace Jones, Charlotte Jones, Frances Cox, Nancy Wattles, Margaret French, Eleanor Tolman, Rebecca Tolman, and Masters Marshall Beverly, Robin Tolman, Jacquelin Marshall, Reid Dunn, Edward Leadbeater, Robt. Marshall, Jack Rogers, Sherman Fowler, Martin Delaney, Luther Delaney, Herbert Bryant, Armstead Boothe, Richard Kemper, Charles Jones, Seabury Boswell, Cooper Dawson, Robert Greene.

Great Singers Must be "Tobacco Wise"

Tuxedo is the Tobacco Chosen by Opera Stars

MEN who depend upon their voices come to know tobacco as the ordinary smoker never knows it. A sensitive throat or mouth feels the slightest sting, bite or scorch of tobacco.

Tuxedo is the one tobacco which singers, actors, public speakers—all men who guard their throats zealously—can smoke with pleasure and safety.

Tuxedo tobacco cannot sting, bite or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo tobacco has made thousands of men converts to the pipe, because it has made pipe-smoking possible for them. Under the famous "Tuxedo Process" the mild, tender leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco are so skillfully treated that Tuxedo burns slowly and affords a cool, mild, thoroughly enjoyable pipe smoke.

Leading men in all walks of life—well-known doctors, lawyers, ministers, lecturers, etc.—smoke Tuxedo and testify to its soothing influence on the throat.

NEWS OF THE DAY

conspiracy against the government of President Yuan Sha Kai was discovered in Pekin yesterday. Fifty plotters were put to death. A reign of terror exists in the capital. Martial law was declared throughout Shensi province yesterday, as a result of the revolution. Foreigners employed by railroads or industrial enterprises conducted by foreign capital were refused passports. Foreign property is being destroyed in Shensi and Hupeh provinces by the revolutionary forces and the outlaws under "White Wolf", the powerful brigand chieftain.

Raymond Peters, of West Sutton, Mass., ate 26 fried eggs, six big rolls, four doughnuts, a large helping of fried potatoes, then drank a cup of coffee and ran ten miles on a bet. But he lost the bet because the terms demanded that he should eat thirty eggs.

William Taylor, undertaker, and Fred Taylor, barber, of Rising Sun, Md., are dead from drinking two quarts of bay rum. Their death came as the result of an Easter celebration which began Saturday. The men drank liquor until no more was obtainable in the town, which is "dry". Then they went to the barber shop and disposed of all the bay rum in the place.

William S. Shallenberger, at one time a member of the House of Representatives from Pennsylvania, and later for ten years Second Assistant Postmaster General, was found dead in bed at his home in the Sherman Apartments, in Washington yesterday morning.

In a neglected old family burying ground near the little town of Berryville, Va., overlooking the Shenandoah river, lies the body of George Washington's favorite niece, Mrs. Betty Carter, daughter of his only sister. Curiously enough her birthday was the same as her illustrious uncle's. At one time part of the estate of her father, Gen. Fielding Lewis, the property has long since passed into the hands of strangers. The wall that originally surrounded the burying ground was destroyed in the civil war and has never been replaced. There the graves are left to be trampled upon by horses and cattle; it is situated in a pasture field. The marble slab is broken in two, and at one end the bricks have fallen away; but the inscription is still very plain, except one word.

Intent on catching a batted ball, 13-year-old Arthur Candleton, of Philadelphia, ran directly into the path of an automobile Tuesday evening, and was fatally injured. He died in the machine as it was hurrying him to a hospital.

An exploding shrapnel shell killed one man and imperiled the lives of several others in the Frankford, Pa., Arsenal Tuesday, Alexander Ross, 38 years old, was horribly mangled by the force of the explosion and died several hours later in a hospital. His skull was fractured, his right eye blown out, his left eye cut and his right arm was torn to shreds.

Fearing that paralysis of the tongue, which frequently afflicts her, would result in permanent loss of speech, Mrs. Catharine Cross, 64 years old, of Philadelphia, attempted suicide Tuesday night by inhaling gas. Mrs. Cross is in a serious condition.

Charged with having attempted to kill his former housekeeper, Joseph Magetti, of Milville, N. J., was arrested Tuesday in Philadelphia. Mary Slimmer, 25 years old, the victim of the assault, is dying in her home, in Milville. Magetti, who is 28 years old, disguised himself in women's clothes, on last Thursday night and waited on a corner in Milliville for the Slimmer woman. When she appeared Magetti slashed the woman across the throat with a razor. He escaped, but was found today viewing a parade.

More than 300 members of the Southern Society of Washington, attended the annual dinner of the society at the Raleigh last night and heard addresses telling of the South's leadership. Governor H. Stuart of Virginia, attended the banquet and was accompanied by Mrs. Stuart, the members of his military staff, and members of the State legislature. At the dinner Governor Stuart responded to the toast "Virginia" the mother of Presidents." The Southern Society now numbers more than 1,000 members, including men and women of Southern birth now living in the National Capital. President and Mrs. Wilson are honorary members of the organization.

THAW WINS FIGHT.

Judge Aldrich Grants Slayer of Stanford White Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Littleton, N. H., April 16.—Harry K. Thaw has won his fight for a writ of habeas corpus. Federal Judge Edgar Aldrich, of the United States District Court, of New Hampshire, handed down his decision Tuesday on the petition of Thaw asking that he be discharged from the extradition proceedings under which the State of New York has been trying to force Thaw's return to Matteawan. The decision was in Thaw's favor. The court grants the writ, but the formal order will not be entered until the State of New York can appeal the case to the United States Supreme Court which will determine whether Thaw shall be admitted to bail.

The net effect of the order of the court is this:

First—Thaw is declared sane by the action of the court approving the finding of the insanity commission, which reported to the court.

Second—Thaw is declared to be no menace to New Hampshire.

Third—Thaw is declared to have the right to go free without extradition.

Fourth—The entire finding is held in abeyance until the Supreme Court of the United States can pass upon the court decision.

Fifth—In the meantime, Thaw will remain in the custody of the court until his lawyers can apply for bail at the bar of the highest court.

New York, April 15.—William Travers Jerome, special deputy attorney general, announced Tuesday that he would at once appeal from the decision of Federal Judge Aldrich granting a writ of habeas corpus to Harry K. Thaw, and would seek an early hearing before the Supreme Court of the United States.

STABS ASSAILANT TO DEATH.

Italian Draws Knife From His Own Wound to Deal Deadly Blow.

Naples, April 16.—Stabbing cases are of such frequent occurrance in southern Italy generally and Naples in particular, that newspapers, as a rule, refrain from chronicling them. Of course, there are exceptions to this rule, and a recent stabbing case here was justly given newspaper notoriety.

Two longshoremen were fighting, and one of them, a boy of 19, named Viola, drew out his knife. An onlookers, wishing to avert bloodshed, rushed up to Viola and prevented him from striking his adversary. The peacemaker naturally got the worst of it, as Viola violently stabbed him in the chest, and failing to draw out his knife from the wound he ran away. Despite the fact that the man who interferred was mortally wounded and covered with blood, he ran after Viola, and with a superhuman effort he drew out the knife sticking in the wound and stabbed Viola, who afterwards died in the hospital

Death of Bishop Penick.

Penick, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, formerly missionary bishop of Cape Palmas, Africa, and formerly rector of the Church of the Messiah, Gay and Fayette streets, who died Monday at a local hospital, took place yesterday afternoon at the Church of the Messiah. Services were conducted by Bishop Murray, the Rev. Dr. William M. Dame, rector of Memorial Church, and the Rev. Dr. W. H. H. Powers, of Trinity Church, Towson. The body was forwarded to South Boston, Halifax county, Va., where burial took place today.

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.
